

Proposed amendment to the Bylaws of the University Council, Part I, IV.L.

All actions of the University Council are subject to the approval of the President of the University. Actions of the University Council will be deemed approved unless the President vetoes such actions within four weeks. A veto shall be in writing and delivered to the Chair of the Executive Committee, who shall include it in the report of the Executive Committee at the next meeting of the University Council. The University Council, by majority vote taken prior to the end of the subsequent academic semester (excluding summer semester), may direct the Executive Committee to appeal a veto to the Board of Regents.

Any action not vetoed that requires Board of Regents approval must be submitted to the Board of Regents no later than five weeks from the measure's passage. The Chair of the Executive Committee shall report to the University Council on its eventual disposition.

We, the undersigned faculty members of the University of Georgia, wish to place a discussion and vote on the Proposed Amendment to the Bylaws of the University Council, Part I, IV.L. (displayed above) on the agenda of the University Council, pursuant to Part III, section 1.B.8 of the University Council bylaws.
