

Fraternity and Sorority New Member Education at the University of Georgia

Policy Statement:

Initiation into full membership must be conducted within an educational phase which can last no longer than eight weeks in total length. The University reserves the right to shorten, suspend, or eliminate the education period.

Each semester a timeline will be established by the Greek Life Office taking into account the academic calendar. This timeline outlines specific dates and times for the education period and a final initiation deadline.

All new member educators must attend mandatory education provided by the Greek Life Office and/or the appropriate governing councils.
