Dear Dr. Anderson:

In accordance with A Culture of Honesty, the University's academic honesty policy and procedures, the Office of the Vice President for Instruction is pleased to provide the attached Academic Honesty Annual Report to the University Council.

During the 2005-2006 academic year, we continued to make every effort to resolve faculty concerns about academic dishonesty quickly and fairly. In addition to administering the policy, speaking to numerous groups of students, faculty, and TAs, and advising the Student Academic Honesty Council (SAHC), this year we provided training for faculty who were nominated by their deans to serve on academic honesty panels. In addition, another facilitator completed training bringing our total number of facilitators to 13.

The Student Academic Honesty Council (SAHC) continues to play an important role in academic honesty education at the University. Undergraduate and graduate student members of the SAHC regularly speak to student groups at Orientation and elsewhere, distribute reminders about the University's honor code prior to exams, and serve as student Academic Honesty Panelists. During the 2005-2006 academic year, the Council spearheaded an initiative to design and post plaques with the UGA Honor Code in all teaching classrooms and laboratories on campus (copy attached.) Our office was awarded a Parents & Families Association grant to produce the plaques and we have received funding for posting the plaques from the President's Venture Fund and Vice President Dunn.

The two of us, along with our graduate assistant who advises the SAHC and an undergraduate member of the SAHC, will attend the 2006 Center for Academic Integrity International Conference at the University of Colorado in October. We will co-present, with the University of Missouri-Columbia, on our non-judicial models for resolving academic honesty matters.

During the 2006-2007 academic year, we plan to conduct a survey, developed by the Center for Academic Integrity, of UGA students and faculty. The CAI Survey is designed to increase our knowledge of student and faculty perceptions about academic honesty in general and the UGA policy and process in particular. Finally, we hope to train additional facilitators and academic honesty panelists and continue to educate students, faculty and staff about the University's expectations for academic honesty and integrity.

If you have questions or would like additional information, please contact Deborah Bell at (706) 542-4336 or by e-mail at dbell@uga.edu.

Sincerely,

Ann R. Crowther
