The Full University Curriculum Committee met on October 9, 2015. Since the last report to University Council, the committee approved 185 new courses and 302 course changes.

The committee approved the following proposals which have been forwarded to the Executive Committee of the University Council for consideration:

Proposal for a new major in Atmospheric Sciences (B.S.)

Proposal to terminate the major in Germanic and Slavic Languages (A.B.)

Proposal for a new minor in Public Policy and Management

Proposal for a new Center for Vaccines and Immunology

After much discussion, the committee approved with friendly amendments a proposal for a new minor in Human Services. The friendly amendments include a name change from Human Services Leadership to Human Services and the addition of wording to allow students in the College of Family and Consumer Sciences to substitute an elective for ECHD 3030.

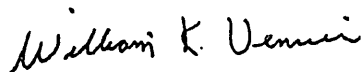

The committee approved a request for a new Area of Emphasis in Human Resource Analytics under the major in Management (B.B.A.).

The committee approved a request to revise the high-demand selection criteria for the major in Marketing (B.B.A.).

The committee approved proposals for new Experiential Learning Implementation Plans from the following schools and colleges:

- College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences
- Franklin College of Arts and Sciences
- Terry College of Business
- Odum School of Ecology
- College of Education
- College of Engineering
- College of Environment and Design
- College of Family and Consumer Sciences
- Warnell School of Forestry and Natural Resources
- Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication
- College of Pharmacy
- School of Public and International Affairs
- College of Public Health
- School of Social Work

The committee briefly discussed reasons for and against requiring prerequisites for upper-division courses, as well as possibly requiring more complete information in CAPA regarding skills needed for courses. This discussion was for informational purposes only and will be continued at a future meeting.
